

Lillie Sellers Green

Mrs. Lillie Sellers Green, widow of the late Fred Pasco Green, of Pomona, died in St. Vincent's Hospital, Jacksonville, at 8 o'clock Sunday morning following a short illness. The news of her untimely passing spread quickly throughout the community, and everywhere occasioned expressions of sympathy and sorrow.

The deceased was born in Fort Deposit, Ala., on October 1st, 1892. She was reared and schooled in Montgomery, and at the age of fourteen became a member of the Church of Christ.

In 1913 she was married to Mr. Fred Green, of Pomona, Fla., whose untimely passing away occurred only six months ago.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. L. S. Sellers of Montgomery; two sisters, Mrs. E. A. Woodruff and Mrs. C. E. Harris, both of Montgomery; by two brothers, B. P. Sellers, of Montgomery, and W. C. Sellers of Cartland, Ala., and by two children, Fred, and a baby girl, Mary Kathryn.

Mrs. Green during the years of her residence at Pomona was active in all the movements looking to a larger and better community. In the Sunday School, in the church, in the schools, in the Unity Club, she was active and ever ready to give freely of her time and means to further their interests. She was a devoted wife, an indulgent mother, and a loyal friend. In her passing the community has suffered a distinct loss.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Pomona church; the impressive service being conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. E. Newton. The remains were then taken to the Georgetown cemetery to be tenderly laid to rest by the side of the husband, who had preceded her only a few months.

The pallbearers were: Messersm H. A. Perry, C. C. Middleton, Walton Tucker, Vesta Middleton, Leonard Shepherd and Walter Shepherd.

The large concourse of sorrowing friends who came from various sections to pay their last tribute of respect, and the handsome and numerous floral offerings bore testimony to the love and esteem in which the departed one was held.

The sympathy of many friends is extended the grief-stricken relatives in their great bereavement.
