

Vause, Clifford Lorin

Many friends throughout the county will be surprised to hear of and grieved over the death of Clifford Lorin Vause, who died in Tampa at noon last Thursday, January 7th, following an illness of only a few days.

The deceased was born November 19, 1897, at Johnson, Florida, being a son of the late Samuel J. and Mrs. Vause.

After attending the school at Johnson in boyhood, he studied for the law and was engaged in the practice of that profession in Tampa, when suddenly stricken by his fatal illness. Friends esteemed him highly and predicted a splendid legal career as his future.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. S. J. Vause; four sisters, Miss Ida Vause of Tampa, Mrs. B. W. Bedenbaugh of High Springs, Mrs. Thomas M. Waldron of East Palatka, and Mrs. Nellie Hartley of Tampa, and one brother, T. C. Vause of Tampa.

The remains were brought to the old family home-place, Johnson, where funeral services were held from the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Dr. W. C. Norman, pastor of the Palatka Baptist Church.

The interment was in the family section in the Johnson cemetery.
