

Cecil "Yak" Johnson

Cecil "Yak" Johnson died Sunday at HCA Putnam Community Hospital following a long illness.

He had lived in Welaka for 33 years. He was a member of the Welaka Neighborhood Facility.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Johnson of Welaka; two sons, Cecil Johnson Jr. of Shawboro, N.C., and Stephen Terrell Johnson of Crescent City; three daughters, Cassandra Smith of Crescent City, Valerie Johnson of Indianapolis, Ind., Melissa Primus of Indianapolis, Ind.; father, Willie Bradshaw Jr. of Welaka; stepfather, Emanuel Johnson; six sisters, Glovine Cook of Detroit, Reggie Canty of Palatka, Evelyn Washington of Welaka, Cormeal Donaldson of Shawboro, N.C., Nellie Quaintance of Orlando, Patricia Johnson of Welaka; five brothers, Lawrence Clifford Goss of Palatka, Willie Bradshaw Jr. of Miami, Alfred Johnson of Welaka, Reginald Johnson of Pierson, Ralph Johnson; and nine grandchildren. (Palatka Daily News Obituary dtd 21 Jan 1992.) Funeral services for Cecil Johnson will be 11 a.m. Saturday at St. James Methodist Church in Welaka with Lawson foster officiating.

Burial will be in Welaka-Georgetown Cemetery.

E. W. Lawson & Son Funeral Home in Palatka is in charge of arrangements.

Palatka Daily News Obituary Jan 24 1992.