

Carrie Belle “Mossie” Kahl

Carrie Belle “Mossie” Kahl, 79, of Crescent City, Florida passed away Friday, Oct. 27, 2006 in North Florida Regional Medical Center in Gainesville, Florida.

Mossie, as everyone knew her, was born in Stockton, Georgia on May 4, 1927. Throughout her life her main profession was her family. She lived, breathed and even went without to see her family become successful, happy in all they chose to pursue and to be content with life.

Kahl also pursued so called “manly” professions which ranged from pulling motors out of cars to building houses. Survivors include her husband of 54 years, Maynard V. Kahl of Crescent City, Florida; her daughter, Terry (John) of Wellborn, Florida; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two brothers, Jimmie Deese of Palatka, Florida and Bill Deese of Lansing, North Carolina; two sisters, Carolyn Williamson of Lake City, Florida and Ann Underwood of Little River, Texas.

Her son, Maynard V. Kahl Jr. preceded her in death.

A memorial service will be held at her home in Crescent City, Saturday, Nov. 11, 2006.

Published in the Suwannee Democrat November 2, 2006.