

Farster, Norma Jean

Jean Farster, 63 years young went to be her beloved husband, James on Saturday, January 20, 2007.

Jean was known for the best biscuits anywhere and the many birds that she loved to care of. Her family and friends fondly called her the bird lady.

Cherished memories are left behind with her mother, Ruth Bowlin of Palatka, Fl.; son, James Farster and wife, Tammy of San Mateo, Fl.; daughter, Teresa Cain of Interlachen, Fl.; sisters, Wanda Click and Patsy Thornton both of Palatka, Fl., Linda Stowers of Tampa, Fl.; brother, Ricky Palmer and wife, Joan of Ga; great uncle, Glenn Buckner and wife Evelyn of Jackson, Ga; three grandchildren, Kimberly Johns and husband, Matt, Brittany Edwards, Brandon Cain; two great grandchildren, Kayla and Summer Johns; numerous nieces and nephews and their families. She will be truly missed and always loved. Heaven just got blessed with the sweetest angel of all. Rest in Peace.

Family and friends will gather together on Wednesday, January 24, 2007, 11:00 AM at Watts Funeral Home, San Mateo, Fl. to remember Jean's Life. Interment will follow at Mei Wun Cemetery in Carraway, Fl.

Visitation will be Tuesday, January 23, 2007 from 7-9 P.M. the funeral home.

Posted by on January 20, 2007