

Neon W. McRae

Word was received here today of the death of Neon W. McRae, 26, native of the Welaka-Georgetown area, in Tampa last night.

Clayton Frank & Sons Funeral Home, Crescent City, will announce services and survivors tomorrow. Mr. McRae died in a Tampa hospital following a lingering illness. Palatka Daily News, Monday, Apr 23 1956.

Services will be held tomorrow, Wednesday, at 2 p.m. at the Clayton Frank & Sons Funeral Home in Crescent City with Rev. Pat McBride conducting the services. Interment will follow in the family plot in the Welaka Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Joan and two small children; his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Tampa; eight sisters, Mrs. R. S. Coleman, Charleston, W.Va., Mrs. Grace Carden, Tampa, Mrs. Dorothy Lambert, Syosset, N.Y., Mrs. Ruth Saunders, Biloxi, Miss., Mrs. Viola Manfred, Jericho, N.Y., Mrs. Katherine Jones, Crescent City, Mrs. Inez Whaley, Bay City, Texas, Mrs. John Kelly, Westbrook, N.Y.; two brothers, Johnie of Orange Springs, Fla. and 1st Lt. Robert W. McRae of Aberdeen, Md.

Palatka Daily News Obituary Tuesday, Apr 24 1956.