

Jamsie E. Primus

Jamsie E. Primus died Saturday evening, November 1, 2003 as God and His Angels came and escorted "Bam-Mer" to her heavenly home.

Born on Saturday, Nov. 16, 1929 in Welaka to the late Willie Mae and James Bryant, she was the sixth out of eight children which all precede her in death. She received her education in Welaka School System and attended Palatka, Florida Central Academy. She received religious strength at Damascus Baptist Church in Welaka and later at the House of Prayer Ministry of Palatka. She had many employments, St. Johns Trading Post as a cook, St. Johns Crab Company as a picker, Shell Harbor as a cook, Lake Shore Nursing Home as a cook, Buster Fletcher as a cook/housekeeper, state of Florida where she retired in 1991, and Health Care for Senior Citizens. She loved and was loved by all who knew her. Preceding her in death is her husband, Melvin Henry Primus Sr., who died in 1993.

Left to cherish her memories is a host of family and friends. Funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8 at the Church of God by Faith, Welaka, Richard Milledge officiating. with the Rev. [article is cut off]

Watts Funeral Home